

ON YOUR MARK...—Hannah Kovar prepares to take off from the starting line in the opening game of the olympics.

TREATS—As an FFA member tosses candy into the crowd, students reach for the airborne treats.

Ag Olympics

Fayette FFA offers games for students

TRICKY BUSINESS—With one hand behind his back, Dominic Weller finally gets a cotton ball onto a spoon to dump into a bowl.

RELAY RUN—Ellie Williams races across the gymnasium to take her turn in a game. Elementary students participated in the annual event Friday morning while the upper grades took their turn in the afternoon.

CORN BUCKET—Leslie Burrow dumps a cup of corn into a bucket. The first team to empty a bucket at the other end of the gymnasium—a cup at a time—was the winner. Agriculture teacher Pam Schultz watches the action.

Photos by David Green

STICKY BUSINESS—Winnie Browning looks up with a smile after getting a marble to stick to a row of cellophane tape. She then turned and ran back to her team for the next member of the relay to take a turn.

UNWINDING—Skylar Lester sends a ribbon of crepe paper flying through the air in a relay that challenged students to unwind a roll in the shortest amount of time.